Chaos defeated

Space-enhancing, home-organ

Organized Thinking.

Hercke Series 7even[®] is a durable, flexible and simple way to defeat the chaos in your life. We've designed and built our products to be equally at home doing the banging, clanging work of the garage or shop, while filling that perfect space in an office, studio, kitchen or on the patio. Wherever you see a need for something special, Hercke delivers refined style with clear purpose.

Order restored. Organizing modular storage systems.

Modulated Design.

Modular design is the key to simplicity, flexibility and to getting your world in order. You decide how your Hercke System goes together, where it fits and how it works. Our system modules organize into dozens of different and useful configurations—when you change, when your needs change, Hercke changes.

Hercke is created with an eye for crisp, clean design that defines itself with true function. Design that only enhances and never gets in the way of your work, your needs and our purpose.

Made Easy.

Series 7 assembles with true ease. And "ease" is not a word we throw around easily. Series 7 goes together, goes up and goes to work in minutes with no bruised knuckles or egos. One Phillips screwdriver and an innovative hinge application make it a simple snap.

Advanced design to go together without a hassle and to rearrange without a second thought. Series 7 is not bolted or welded in place for the simple reason that your life is not bolted or welded in one place.

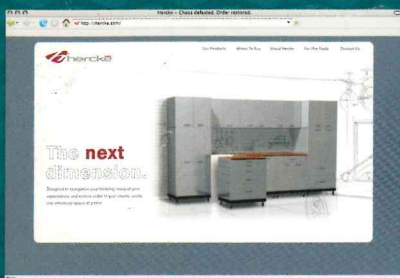

Configure for yourself.

Modular configuration gives you endless (well, nearly endless) flexibility to rearrange, expand, divide and even shrink your system.

We've created an online tool to vividly demonstrate Hercke's unique adaptability and your abundant possibilities. Go to our configuration page at www.configurehercke.com and build to your clutter-busting heart's content. There you can organize, reorganize and organize again your dream system, without lifting more than a clicking finger.
